You shouldn't have to choose between powerful resources and personal relationships.

Travel Masters give you the tools, technology and supplier access you'd expect from a larger host with the kind of responsive, human support that's harder to find when you're one of thousands.

THE 100% COMMISSION CONVERSATION

Is 100% commission always the best deal?

Some host agencies advertise 100% commission. If keeping the highest possible percentage is only your priority, Travel Masters may not be the right fit.

We believe the value of a host agency isn't just measured by the percentage on a commission statement. It's measured by what the partnership helps you build. That's why we invest in the technology, supplier relationships, accounting, training, business development and â?? most importantly â?? the people behind your business.

We succeed when our advisors succeed. That gives us shared interest in helping you build a stronger, more profitable business.

AGENT STORIES

Real Advisors. Real Journeys. Real Success

Our advisors come from different backgrounds, niches, and business models, but they have one thing in common â??

they value the support, tools and partnership theyâ??ve found at Travel Masters.

â??I love the support I receive from Travel Mastersâ?? head office. It allows me to take my business further than I thought possible. The ability to work from home keeps the overhead low but does not impact my ability to train in new programs.â?•
